

WHY O WHY

If only God had made my pen a paintbrush
I'd learn to write a Mona Lisa smile
And if only these keys could unlock the doors to your heart
I'd write a symphony
And if only Shakespeare wrote in multicolour
I'd hang all his words on my wall
And a rose by another name would be the sweetest song
I could ever sing
If he wrote melody

*O Why O why do we dream
Why O why do we dream
Why O why do we do we value ourselves so cheap
So cheap*

And if only birds could learn some words to whistle
I'd hire them for tuppence every day
And if only the weather could change with our moods
It would always bring a summer rain
And if only I could learn to walk on water
I'd never be afraid of the storms
And if only my eyes held the meaning of life
I would never blink again
Or ever have to question
