

BE THOU MY VISION

Be thou my vision, Lord of my heart
Let nothing else be to me, all that you are
Will you be my wisdom, my true word
Be ever with me and I with you Lord

Be thou my light, My hope in the dark
The wings of my faith And king that you are
Will you be my father, and I your true child
Waking or sleeping, may your presence be my guide

*To the High King of Heaven, my victory call
The light of my eyes and ruler of all
And heart of my own heart whatever befalls
Will you be my vision, now and forevermore*

Be thou my dignity, Thou my delight
Will you be my battle cry, sword in the fight
And may my soul's shelter, be a tower of strength
And may I live always shadowed by your grace

*Oh High King of Heaven, delight of my eyes
The saviour of all, and author of life
Joy in my sorrow whatever befalls
Will you be my vision, now and forever more*

I need no riches, nor man's fame
You're my inheritance, now and always
Bright heaven's morning, the light of the day
Be thou my melody, as I sing your praise

*Oh High King of Heaven, my victory song
The joy of creation, bright heaven's son
I'll sing of my saviour whatever befalls
For you are my vision, Ruler of all
Oh High King of Heaven, my victory song
Will you be my vision, now and forever more*

© Melissa Hubert 2012. All rights reserved